Although arrests for people leaving their horses untied in the street are daily becoming more numerous there seems to be an increase rather than a diminution in the number of offenses.

Fifty-four of the opium users at Ka-

Levy said to a Bulletin reporter this morning: "I have a lot of things to say but I will not say them to a new-paper man."

The morning service at Central Union church yesterday was a repetition of the evening service of Easter Sunday. Miss Griswold sang "The Lord is Risen" from Sullivan's "The Light of the World" with even more feeling if possible than the first time and there were many in the congregation whose eyes were wet at the conclusion of her song.

There were a large number of names on the Police Court calendar this forenoon, charged with drunkenness.
Among them was Makaena, a native, who, on Saturday, went into Ah Leong's place and knocked down everybody he could. A fine of $5 and costs was imposed. Robert Connor was another. He gave his name at the receiving station as Tommy Tricky.

You'll Acknowledge . . .

As soon as you try them, that there are many points of everyday wearing merit
in them.
